

GO EAGLES!

The History of Ashland University Football

By Ralph V. Tomassi Jr.

Celebrating over 80 Years of Ashland Football – 1920-2004

Now, for the first time ever, the story of Ashland College/University football is being brought to life in a new book, titled Go Eagles!... The History of Ashland University Football. Written by Ashland alumnus Ralph V. Tomassi Jr. '77, the book relives each season: the players, coaches, managers, trainers and memorable moments and games. The book includes:

- Summary of each season, team, captains, scores, rosters, human interest stories
- The greatest teams, longest plays from scrimmage, greatest games played
- The rivalries with Wooster, Findlay, Butler and Hillsdale
- Individual and team records and accomplishments
- All-American, All-Conference and Hall-of-Fame Eagle footballers
- Coach Bob Brownson and "The Forty Hungry Hounds."
- Thirteen Conference Championships and two post season appearances.
- The Fred Martinelli era (1959-1993)
- Ashland gridiron players who have soared into the pro ranks and much, much more.

Approximately 400 pages and illustrated with more than 150 photographs.

Book will be available, November 2005.

Please return form to: Ashland University Bookstore, 401 College Ave., Ashland, Ohio 44805 or order online at www.ashlandbookstore.com

ORDER YOUR AUTOGRAPHED BOOK TODAY!

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Payment: check
 VISA Mastercard Discover American Express

Account No. _____ Exp. Date _____

Signature _____

Number of books ____ at $34.95 each $ _____

Ohio tax 6.75% $ _____

add $6.50 per book for shipping cost $ _____

TOTAL $ _____

GO EAGLES!

The History of Ashland University Football