Orientation Information

Ashland University Mission, Vision & Values

Ashland University places great emphasis on the importance of each individual. The phrase “Accent on the Individual” has been an AU core value for many years and characterizes well the nature and content of the campus environment. It means that our concern for the student extends beyond ensuring a quality education in the classroom and laboratory to include a commitment to provide a stimulating and supportive environment in every respect. These ideas must be evidenced daily in the classroom, residence halls, each teaching site, on the playing fields and in our interaction with others.

OUR SHARED MISSION

Ashland University, guided by our Christian heritage, is a comprehensive, private university that provides a transformative learning experience, shaping graduates who work, serve and lead with integrity in their local, national and global communities.

OUR SHARED VISION

Ashland University aspires to be a nationally recognized, private university where traditions of excellence are fostered and students discern their life calling and thrive.

OUR SHARED VALUES

Accent on the Individual

Pledges the best individual and collective efforts to challenge and encourage each member of the university within a supportive community.

Spirituality and Faith

Affirms Christian values as a core element of the university's institutional identity, emphasizing faith in God, moral integrity and respect for the diversity of values and faith of each person in a community of learning.

Character Development

Promotes integrity, self-discipline, responsibility, compassion, leadership, service and good citizenship.

Academic Freedom

Supports free, open and critical inquiry for both students and faculty necessary for intellectual and professional development.

Excellence in Teaching

Emphasizes teaching supported by research and scholarship as the university's central responsibility.

SUPPORTING INDIVIDUAL GROWTH

Ashland University supports equal opportunity and access to higher education. We strive to offer an educational experience that is inclusive of people of all religions, races, ethnicities, genders, ages and sexual orientations, as well as people with disabilities. We work to provide not only a quality education, but also a diverse and multicultural one.

In addition, we encourage student individuality and the free, open and critical inquiry for students and faculty that is necessary for intellectual and professional development. Having officially endorsed the Chicago Statement in 2017, AU firmly believes in the freedom of expression and is fully committed to continuing our full and unwavering support to protect students and faculty members' academic freedom and freedom of speech on campus.

Core Curriculum

Gregory McBrayer, Ph.D.
Director of Core Curriculum
gmcbraye@ashland.edu

The Core Curriculum at Ashland University:

The word “core” comes from the Latin cor (heart). As its name suggests, a core curriculum is the heart of a university education. Just as the heart is essential to the life of the body, a core is essential to a good education. This education is the kind we have had for centuries. It is called a “liberal” education, also from Latin, for freedom. A liberally educated person learns how to think clearly, read carefully, write coherently, speak persuasively and listen thoughtfully, which are all valuable skills. Yet, while a part and effect of liberal education, acquiring information and skills is not its goal. Liberal education aims to produce people who are free in the sense that they can think for themselves about the most important questions in life. A liberal education core centers on an important question for everyone: What does it mean to be a good human being? A liberally educated person continues to explore this question and others that emerge from it throughout his or her life.

Principle 1

As the centerpiece of liberal education, the Core exists to cultivate the mind and ennoble the heart, which is good in itself and can enable students to enrich the professions, promote the public good and thrive in the broader world.

Principle 2

The Core’s focus is to free the mind from prejudicial attachment to unreflected opinion by encouraging students to pursue free, Socratic inquiry about the most important questions for them as human beings and citizens, regardless of major or profession. In pursuing these questions, Core courses will empower students to think freely and critically about questions concerning wisdom, ethics, justice, society, culture, language, nature, science, beauty, religion and the past.

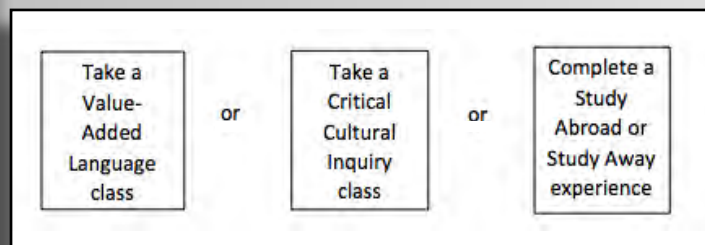

Principle 3

Generally speaking, Core courses will be participatory and focused on how facts and theories help to deepen understanding of the question under study. Students will also learn how to think clearly, read carefully, write coherently, speak persuasively and listen thoughtfully.

Ashland’s Core Curriculum is 45 credit hours:

English Composition I and II	6 hours
Communications	3 hours
Natural Sciences	6 hours
Humanities	6 hours
Social Sciences	6 hours
Aesthetics	6 hours
Logic or Mathematics	3 hours
Religion	3 hours
Historical Reasoning	3 hours
Critical Cultural Inquiry (CCI)	3 hours

Critical Cultural Inquiry Requirement (CCI)

The Critical Cultural Inquiry or CCI is a 3-credit-hour graduation requirement. This can be either one value-added foreign language course, one course with study away or study abroad or one CCI course.

Student Accessibility Center

The Student Accessibility Center at Ashland University collaborates with students who have disabilities in order to coordinate services that enable equitable access to education and university life. Accommodations include, but are not limited to, the following:

Academic accommodations - extended time for exams, access to a distraction-reduced testing area, access to text-to-speech software, alternative versions of textbooks, etc.

Classroom accommodations - Sign Language interpreters, attendance policy modification, accessible seating as requested, access to record lectures, etc.

Assistive Technology/Equipment - digital recorders, mobile scooter, amplification system, etc.

Requesting Accommodations

- Students requesting accommodation should contact the Student Accessibility Center.
- Send third-party verification documentation - IEP & ETR; 504 Plan; healthcare provider verification letter; completed disability verification form available on the web page at: www.ashland.edu/accessibility
- Schedule Intake meeting - contact Student Accessibility Center to schedule
- Sign exam accommodation agreement (if necessary)
- For additional information, please refer to the online orientation Student Accessibility Center module

Tips for Students with Disabilities, from Students with Disabilities (NCCSD - National Center for College Students with Disabilities)

1. Disability accommodations are rights, not special help.
2. You are an important and valuable part of campus diversity.
3. Find a community - don't go it alone.
4. Design your own learning - learn how you learn best & then use your strengths.
5. Never apologize for your disability or your accommodations.
6. Fight oppression and bullying in any form.

The Student Accessibility Center is located in the Claremont Building at 930 Claremont Ave. Students requesting accommodations should contact the Student Accessibility Center as soon as possible after they are admitted to the university at: au-sac@ashland.edu or call 419-289-5904.

Study Abroad

The Study Abroad Office at Ashland University offers unique, affordable programs that focus on core classes so a student of any major can participate. Past study abroad students describe it as one of the most powerful transformational experiences in their lives. Learning about art in Italy. Studying WWII in Germany. Touring the Nike and Converse plants in Amsterdam. These experiences dramatically increase students' cultural awareness, enhances their problem-solving skills, and builds their confidence and independence.

Why Study Abroad?

- Take classes not offered by AU
- Develop a global resume and increase your marketability - stand out from the competition
- Improve foreign language proficiency
- Increase your understanding of other cultures
- Enjoy new and different activities

How much does studying abroad cost?

It is more affordable than you think! Ashland University has several donors who help bring the costs down for students. Don't assume you can't afford to go. Meet with the Director of Study Abroad who can show you low cost programs.

How do I get started?

Explore all of the study abroad options on the AU Study Abroad website. Meet with the Director of Student Abroad to find the program that is best for you!

Semester and Summer Programs

Ashland University has pre-approved programs in more than 38 countries. You receive credit for courses taken abroad that advance your academic program.

Japan Exchange Programs

Fall or Spring Semester

Spend a semester or academic year studying at Kansai Gaidai University in Osaka, Japan for the same tuition cost as AU. Major, minor and core courses are pre-approved.

Student Teaching Abroad

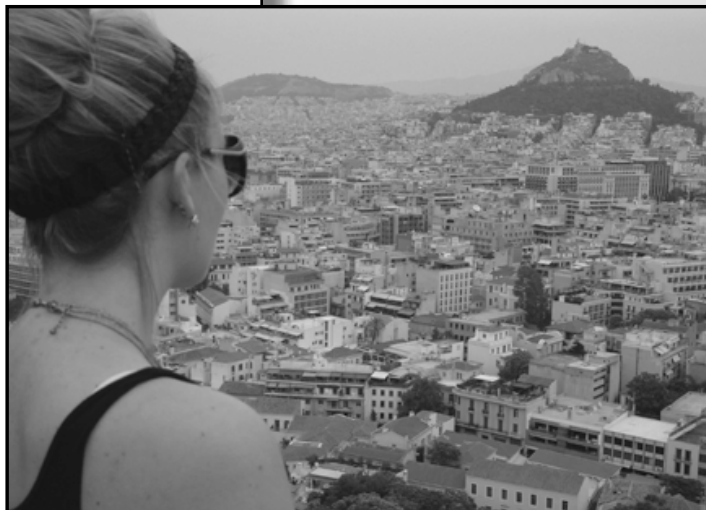

7 Weeks

The College of Education offers students the opportunity to complete their final student teaching requirement abroad. You will be assigned to a school that uses English as the language of instruction. International locations include Australia, Bahamas, China, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, South Africa and Spain.

Faculty-Led Tours

1-3 Weeks

Each year, Ashland University coordinates faculty-led tours to locations all over the world. You will accompany one or more faculty members as they explore a focused topic, using the destination as the classroom.

Library Spaces & Services

- Computers are available on every floor of the library. Students may use computers to conduct research, write papers, prepare presentations, or for any other personal or academic tasks. The building also offers a variety of group and individual study spaces.
- The Instructional Resource Center (IRC), located on the library's second floor, supports the Dwight Schar College of Education and is a self-service work area for students, faculty and staff. Second floor collections include juvenile books (picture books, fiction, non-fiction and YA), big books, award books and leveled book kits; IRC Collection items feature K-12 curriculum textbooks, activity books and manipulatives. IRC technology resources include computers, scanners and printing. Laminating, binding, button makers, Ellison Die Cut Machines and an extensive library of dies are available at a reasonable cost. Help is available in-person and online via the Ask the IRC Chat.
- The library has two campus FindMe printers providing students with access to printing, scanning and copying. Students can check out headphones, calculators and dry erase board supplies to use with whiteboards located in the study rooms and mobile whiteboards located throughout the library. Study room reservations may be made using our online reservation system.

Research Resources

- The library's membership in OhioLINK gives access to materials at colleges and universities across Ohio. Requested items are delivered at no charge in three to five business days. Nationwide interlibrary loan is available for items not accessible via OhioLINK.
- Archer Library's catalog includes the physical materials for Archer Library and ATS Library and provides access to many eResources, including journals and government documents. Materials can be checked out of both libraries using your EagleCard.
- The library's A to Z database list offers 195 research databases, providing access to thousands of journals, magazines, newspapers and media. Archer Library is also an Ohio and Government Documents depository.
- The Archer Library catalog, research databases and eBooks are accessible off campus using a simple authentication process.
- Librarians are available to help students with research and locating the materials they need. Stop by the library in person, call 419-289-5402, email library@ashland.edu, chat with us online ashland.edu/library or make an appointment online for in-depth research help.

Ashland University's Center for Academic Support provides resources to students in a coordinated effort that focuses on the individual needs of our students with an emphasis on academic success.

Centrally located on Ashland University's campus, comprehensive and individualized support services in the following areas are provided: advising, scheduling, tutoring, navigating campus resources, connecting with others, working through homesickness and adjusting to college-level coursework.

Academic Advising

The professional academic advisors serve as the primary advising resource for all freshmen during their first year. Additionally, any undergraduate student seeking professional guidance in reaching his/her academic goals should contact one of the full-time professional academic advisors located within the Center for Academic Support. Professional academic advisors can help you with everything from course selection, degree planning, major or minor exploration and understanding the Core curriculum to navigating university life. First-Year @ AU Advising Process:

- Freshmen are required to meet with their professional academic advisor a minimum of two times per semester in their first year.
- Transfer students will be assigned to faculty advisors within the first few weeks of the first semester and will be required to meet with their faculty advisor for registration approval.

Tutoring Programs

The tutoring programs available in the Center for Academic Support are designed to supplement the information presented by our exceptional faculty. Tutoring assistance is offered in a variety of academic subjects at Ashland University. Additional subjects may be added depending on the current tutors' qualifications.

Important Facts About Tutoring:

- No cost to students
- Offered in a variety of academic subjects at the main campus
- Tutoring in time management, study skills, note-taking and test-taking strategies with an in-person tutor or through Blackboard as a self study
- All tutors are full-time Ashland University students who have been recommended by faculty and have demonstrated academic excellence.
- You can request a tutor or view the drop-in schedule at www.ashland.edu/tutor.

Writing & Communication Center

What is the Writing & Communication Center (WCC)?

The Writing and Communication Center is a free service available to all Ashland University students in any major. Undergraduate students can receive one-on-one feedback from a trained communication coach on any project that involves communication—essays, presentations, research projects, lab reports, digital productions and much more.

When working with students, coaches approach communication as a complex and individualized process. The WCC's primary objective is to help students become more aware, autonomous and confident communicators.

- All undergraduate appointments are offered synchronously (live).
- Students can choose between face-to-face or Zoom appointments.

Process Approach

At the WCC, we approach communication as a process, not just an end product. This means that you don't have to wait until you have a finished product to come to the WCC for help. With us, you can brainstorm, think out loud about what you're working on and discuss your approach to an assignment. After that, we can help you think about your organization and next steps for the assignment.

Other Services

Beyond one-on-one coaching sessions, the Writing and Communication Center (WCC) offers a dynamic range of services designed to enrich the academic and creative lives of our students. Our Embedded Coach Program places skilled coaches directly into classes, offering tailored support and fostering a deeper understanding of course material. Additionally, our guest speaker events and workshops provide unique opportunities to engage with experts and thought leaders, expanding perspectives and sparking inspiration. We also host contests that challenge and celebrate the creativity and prowess of our student body, making the WCC a hub of vibrant academic and creative activity on campus.

How do I make an appointment?

The WCC lab is located on the first floor of the Archer Library and is open five days a week during the academic year. Appointments are scheduled online at ashland.mywconline.com. Visit the WCC webpage for updated information: www.ashland.edu/wcc.

College of Arts & Sciences

All undergraduate students at Ashland University, regardless of their major, take a significant number of courses in the 50+ academic programs in the College of Arts and Sciences. Students majoring in a program housed within Arts and Sciences develop the capacity to blend knowledge, critical thinking skills and experiences and apply them to situations that require judgment. Majors including the word “education” will involve both the content major requirements in the College of Arts and Sciences and the licensure requirements in the College of Education. You are also encouraged to inquire about student organizations and clubs that are related to our academic programs. These organizations offer you additional opportunities to get to know and collaborate with others who share your academic interests.

Many unique opportunities await you in the Dauch College of Business and Economics. Students are offered opportunities to network with faculty and business professionals, develop leadership skills, enhance time management, apply theories to actual business experiences and explore internships and career opportunities.

You may select from the following majors in business:

Majors

- Accounting: Timothy Hinkel, Ph.D., program lead, thinkel@ashland.edu – Accounting majors are in high demand in public accounting firms as well as in the internal accounting departments of businesses and government agencies. Accounting is also an excellent background for those who wish to assume leadership and executive positions.
- Business Analytics: Paul Holmes, Ph.D., program lead, pholmes2@ashland.edu – Businesses around the world are collecting more and more data and need people to manage and interpret it. This program will give you the necessary skills to implement these insights across all levels of business.
- Business Management: Bob Stoll, Ph.D., program lead, rstoll2@ashland.edu – As a business management major, you can acquire the knowledge you need to be successful as a business manager or entrepreneur.
- Economics: Jeff Russell, Ph.D., program lead, jrussell@ashland.edu – The field of economics is particularly exciting at this moment in history. Industrial privatization and newly emerging global markets such as those of Eastern Europe and China and other changes to “underdeveloped” countries require the expertise of a growing number of economists and business people.
- Entrepreneurship: Dan Sullivan, Ed.D., program lead, dsulliv1@ashland.edu – The entrepreneurship program prepares students to start, develop, finance, manage and harvest new ventures with high growth potential.
- Fashion Merchandising: Alison Rossi, program lead, arossi@ashland.edu – Get immersed in a curriculum of fashion analysis, textiles and fashion evolution, as well as business courses in marketing, retail merchandising and advertising.
- Finance: Dennis Witherspoon, Ph.D., program lead, dwither4@ashland.edu – Finance students obtain knowledge in corporate finance, financial strategies, security analysis, investment portfolio management, money and banking, insurance and global finance.
- Industrial & Systems Engineering: Bob Stoll, Ph.D., program lead, rstoll2@ashland.edu – You'll learn the fundamentals that will allow you to build a career in any direction: manufacturing processes, modeling and simulation, engineering management, safety/occupational health, and workplace ergonomics.
- International Business: Sivakumar Venkataramany, Ph.D., program lead, svenkata@ashland.edu This major combines a solid core of business courses with classes in international business/culture, international marketing, global finance, global management, international economics and foreign languages.
- Management Information Systems: Dave Lifer, Ph.D., program lead, dlifer@ashland.edu – Management Information Systems combines the fields of computers and information technology with a business degree to prepare students for careers in systems analysis, systems design or information systems.
- Manufacturing Management: Dan Sullivan, Ed.D., program lead, dsulliv1@ashland.edu – Manufacturing Management is a 33-credit major that exposes students to the fields of hydraulics, electronics, mechanics, industrial health and safety, as well as other important areas. The major is designed to equip students with the skills needed to succeed in today's fast-paced manufacturing environment.
- Marketing: Diane Moretz, program lead, dmoretz@ashland.edu – Organizations increasingly rely on marketing professionals to guide all aspects of business, from product conception to promotion and distribution.
- Sport Management: Lance Kaltenbaugh, Ed.D., program lead, kaltenb@ashland.edu – Study a dynamic, ever-changing field, where business, entertainment and sports intersect. This program prepares students for careers in the sport industry, with emphasis on professional, intercollegiate and recreational sport.
- Supply Chain Management: Bob Stoll, Ph.D., program lead, stoll2@ashland.edu – This program will meet a strong market demand by preparing students to integrate the basic principles of procurement, operations and logistics across multiple organizations participating in designing, sourcing, producing and delivering products and service to meet customer demand.

The Dauch College of Business and Economics is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP), which emphasizes quality instruction in addition to faculty research.

College of Education

Teacher education is an essential component of Ashland University's academic tradition. Continuously accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and now through the Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Preparation (CAEP), the Dwight Schar College of Education offers programming at the baccalaureate level (B.S.Ed.), initial and advanced licenses, Master of Education (M.Ed.) and doctoral (Ed.D.) levels.

Undergraduate, Bachelor's Plus and advanced license programs in the Dwight Schar College of Education include an integration of course content and field experiences. All programs are aligned with current professional standards and provide innovative means through which educators work effectively with students at various age levels in various subject areas.

The Ohio Department of Higher Education (ODHE) approves the Dwight Schar College of Education undergraduate and graduate programs, and faculty work closely with key stakeholders from schools and districts to ensure that they are continuously improving the programs based upon data. While each undergraduate and Bachelor's Plus program is unique, the college ensures that the following is addressed in each:

Ohio's Learning Standards: Students demonstrate a clear knowledge of all content in their respective grade levels and subject areas, as well as the appropriate methods to teach that content to their students.

Literacy: All students in the Dwight Schar College of Education receive a strong foundation in literacy. Early childhood, middle grades and intervention specialist majors complete a minimum of twelve hours of literacy coursework. Adolescent/young adult and multi-age majors are required to complete a minimum of three credit hours in literacy.

Assessment: All College of Education teacher candidates are prepared to assess their students and to use data to inform their instructional planning.

Extensive Field/Internship Experiences: Students begin visiting local schools early in their program. By their sophomore year, undergraduate students are working with cooperating teachers and university supervisors in the field.

• FERPA Information

FERPA

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's educational, financial and health records. Without the appropriate student information releases, student account and academic records cannot be discussed with a parent, guardian, spouse or other parties. Under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, student education records and information cannot be released without the expressed written consent of the student. The written consent needs to contain specifically what is to be released, the reasons for release and to whom (for example, a transcript).

The exception to this information is classified as "Directory (Public) Information" and may be released without the student's consent. Ashland University has determined the following as directory information:

- a. Name, local address; home address; local telephone number; home telephone number; date and place of birth; parent names and address; email address; major; class; center attended; dates of attendance; full-time, half-time or part-time status (not specific credit hours); degrees and awards received (including Dean's List); previous institutions attended; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; photographs; weight and height of members of athletic teams.
- b. Directory information cannot include student identification numbers or social security numbers. Ashland University sends names and social security numbers of enrolled students to the National Student Loan Clearinghouse each semester. In addition, the university is required by law to release enrolled student social security numbers and addresses to agencies connected with The U.S. Department of Education when mandated to do so.
- c. Students have the right to withhold the release of the above by presenting a written request to the Registrar. A small number of students have requested this and when the name is "accessed in the computer" the statement "Do Not Release Information" will appear.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as amended, outlines the requirements regarding the privacy of student records. FERPA governs release of records maintained by an educational institution and access to those records. The following explains the rights of students to the student education records and outlines the university's procedures to comply with FERPA.

The meaning of "education records" is, with certain exemptions as listed below, those records, files, documents and other materials which contain information directly related to a student, and are maintained by any employee or agent of the university. The following categories of information are exempted and are not considered to be "education records:"

- a. Records made by university personnel which are in the sole possession of the maker and are not accessible or revealed to any other person.
- b. Records maintained by the Safety Services Department for law enforcement purposes.
- c. Medical and counseling records used solely for treatment. (Medical records may be personally reviewed by a physician of the student's choice.)
- d. Records only related to a former student (alumni records). Records of that individual while a student continue to be considered education records.

All records pertaining to students which are maintained by university offices are official university records, and as such, remain the property of the university.

A student has the right to:

A. Inspect and review education records pertaining to the student.

- a. Students have the right to view their education records wherever these records are maintained on campus.
- b. Once a student has submitted a request to inspect his or her records, an institution must comply within 45 days.
- c. Information contained in education records will be fully explained and interpreted to students by university personnel assigned to, and designated by, the appropriate office.
- d. Students have the right to review only their own records. When a record contains information about more than one student, disclosure cannot include information regarding the other student(s).
- e. The university allows inspection and review of the specified requested education records, but does not permit a copy of said records. No photographic, electronic or audio devices are permitted during the inspection and review meeting.

- f. When the student has an outstanding financial or other hold on records, the student still maintains the right to review his or her education records. He or she does not have the right to obtain any copies of those records unless failure to do so would effectively deny the student the right to inspect and review records. Also, that student does not have the right to have a transcript sent to a third party until the obligation is fulfilled
- g. In cases where a student is not within commuting distance (50 miles) of campus and therefore is physically unable to be present to view the record on campus, the institution must make arrangements for the student to obtain access for review of these records.

B. Challenge Information in Records

- a. Students have a right to challenge the content of their education records if they consider the information contained therein to be inaccurate, misleading or inappropriate.
- b. This process includes an opportunity for amendment of the records or insertion of written explanations by the student into such records.
- c. The right to challenge grades does not apply under the Act unless the grade assigned was inaccurately recorded, under which condition the record will be corrected.

C. Procedures for Hearing to Challenge Records

- a. Students challenging information in their records must submit, in writing, a request for a hearing to the appropriate office maintaining the record, listing the specific information in question and the reasons for the challenge.
- b. Hearings will be conducted by a university official who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.
- c. Students shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the reasons for the challenge.
- d. The hearing officer will render a decision, in writing, noting the reason and summarizing all evidence presented within a reasonable period of time after the challenge is filed.
- e. Should the hearing be in favor of the student, the record shall be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, an appeal may be made, in writing, and submitted to the University Registrar within 10 days of the student's notification of the decision of the hearing officer. The appeal shall be heard by an Appeals Board of three disinterested senior university officials and a decision rendered, in writing, within a reasonable period of time.
- f. Should the appeal be in favor of the student, the record shall be amended, accordingly. Should the request be denied, the student may choose to place a statement with the record commenting on the accuracy of the information in the record and/or setting forth any basis for inaccuracy. When disclosed to an authorized party, the record will always include the student's statement and notice of the Board's decision, as long as the student's record is maintained by the university.

D. Limit disclosure of some "personally identifiable information" (information that would directly identify the student or make the student's identity easily traceable) known as directory information.

- a. Any student who does not want directory information to be released must submit their request in writing and meet with the campus FERPA Coordinator located in the Registrar's Office.

E. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Ashland University to comply with the requirements of FERPA by contacting the Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education.

Please refer to the "New Student Checklist" located at www.ashland.edu/orientation to complete the FERPA form or navigate to this link: <https://ashlandcentral.etrieve.cloud/#/form34>

Financial Aid

We're here to guide you through the steps to secure financial aid.

Paying for college can be challenging, but when you choose Ashland University, you choose a team that works on your behalf every step of the way. Approximately 98% of undergraduate students receive financial aid at Ashland University. We've done our best to ensure Ashland University is affordable for students who want to attend. In addition to our four-year tuition freeze, we also offer financial aid resources to all students who are admitted to the university and meet eligibility requirements. The Ashland Promise provides an affordable education through offering many forms of financial aid, including scholarships, grants, loans and student employment.

Financial Aid Steps

1. Apply - Complete your FAFSA using Ashland University's school code 003012. You and your parent(s) will each be prompted to create your own FSA ID when you log on to the FAFSA site and you will use that FSA ID to sign your completed FAFSA.
2. Review Financial Aid Offer - Students can log in to Self Service at selfservice.ashland.edu and click on the Financial Aid tab to see just how affordable it can be to receive a nationally recognized private education at AU! Check your AU email account frequently for revised offers, eligibility requirements and important notices from the Financial Aid Office.
3. Complete Loan Processes - For any federal loans listed on your Financial Aid Offer, you must login to Self-Service and accept or decline the loans. Additionally, federal loan borrowing requirements must be completed before the loan will disburse to your student account. If you wish to cancel or reduce any of your loans, please email the Financial Aid Office at financialaid@ashland.edu.

Financial Aid FAQs

What determines my financial aid eligibility?

There are a variety of factors that are considered when AU offers financial aid to students, including:

- High School GPA
- ACT and/or SAT Scores
- FAFSA Results
- Departmental Selection of Scholarship Recipients

What financial aid options are available?

Once we receive your FAFSA and eligibility is determined, you will automatically be considered for any federal/state grants, loans and student employment. While you will want to apply for any scholarships that are available in your local area, Ashland University offers merit and need-based scholarships to assist with your educational costs. Make sure you contact your major department to inquire about additional funding opportunities.

Additionally, parents of dependent students may apply for a Federal Parent PLUS Loan up to the student's cost of attendance, less other financial aid received. Students who need more loan funds than what has already been awarded in federal loans can apply for a private education alternative loan.

When will financial aid disburse?

If we've received all required paperwork, aid will disburse to your account before the beginning of the term to which it applies. Please note: Federal aid and private education loans aren't credited to your account until 10 days before each term begins. If you are eligible for a refund, it will be available after you attend your first class or complete an academic activity in an online course.

We know that each student situation is unique and we are here to make the process of funding your education as smooth as possible. Please contact the AU Financial Aid Office with any questions.

EagleCard

The EagleCard

The EagleCard represents the latest in a state-of-the-art card system specifically designed for the Ashland University community. Much more than just an official ID card, the EagleCard is a valuable tool which will enable you to access a wide array of services in an easy, convenient and secure way – and all with one card!

The Ashland University EagleCard serves as a campus currency for use in the Campus Store, vending and copier locations. It's also your dining card, library card and for admission to university events, as well as access to residence halls and other secured areas. From registration to graduation, it is the smartest card on campus!

How Does Money Get Onto the Card?

In order to make purchases with your EagleCard, there must be funds deposited on your card.

Other Ways to Deposit Funds to your EagleCard Account

- 1. IN PERSON: Make a deposit using cash, check or credit card in the EagleCard office located in the Lower Convocation Center (student dining) Monday through Friday, 8a.m. - 4p.m. or in the Campus Store located in the Hawkins-Conard Student Center.
- 2. BY PHONE: Call the EagleCard office at 419-289-5433 during normal business hours, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.
- 3. MAIL: Mail check or money order to Ashland University/EagleCard office, 401 College Avenue, Ashland, OH 44805.
- 4. ONLINE: Go to www.ashland.edu/EagleCard, follow prompts.
 - Make deposits
 - Check account balances
 - View transaction history
 - Deactivate/Activate your card if it is lost or stolen

How Does the EagleCard work with Dining Services?

In addition to its other uses, the EagleCard also serves as your dining services access card, supporting the meal plan of your choice. Simply present your EagleCard when entering the dining hall and your meal will be deducted from your meal plan account. You will then be able to enjoy the many offerings of Ashland's award-winning dining service.

How Does the EagleCard Work with the Libraries?

The bar code on the back of your EagleCard is used to check out materials from the Ashland University Library and the Ashland University Theological Seminary Library.

The ID number under your picture on your EagleCard is used for the following:

- Check out books when you visit one of the other 76 OhioLINK academic libraries.
- Request that a book found in the OhioLINK catalog be sent to you at the Ashland University Library.
- Check the status of your library account using EaglePAC (the library catalog).
- Access certain library databases that require an ID number when accessed from off campus.

Dining at Ashland University is no ordinary experience! Student Dining Services continually demonstrates a proactive approach to customer service, menu selection and nutritional awareness. A four-week menu cycle allows students to use their meal plan at more than 10 different points of service. The goal of Student Dining Services is to appeal to today's more discriminating student, whose tastes range from fast food to a more traditional style. The intent is to provide a menu that is geared toward "just in time" cooking presentation. This allows the student customers to select what they want and how they want it.

Meal Plan Options

Gold Plan - $3,135 per semester

Unlimited meals in the student dining hall plus $275 Dining Dollars which can be used to purchase guest meals in the dining hall or used as cash at any of the retail dining locations on campus. This plan allows you to take family and friends to the dining hall while experiencing tremendous savings over the door price. Dining dollars can only be used in dining locations on campus. Dining dollars expire at the end of each semester and do not carry over.

Purple Plan - $2,845 per semester

Unlimited meals in the student dining hall located in the John C. Meyers Convocation center. Students may come and go as many times as they want. You will never run out of meals! The dining hall now offers late night dining, which makes this plan a great value.

Talon Plan - $2,845 per semester

Receive 160 meals to be used in the student dining hall plus an additional $500 dining dollars to be used at any of our retail locations which includes Eagles' Nest, Tuffy's Smoothie Bar, Lyceum Cafe, Concessions and Ashland Marketplace.

Eagle Plan - $2,845 per semester

This plan gives the student 240 meals to be spread throughout the semester. Meal swipes can be used at the student dining hall or used as equivalency at any of our retail locations, which include the Eagles' Nest, Tuffy's Smoothie Bar, Concessions and Catering.

Tuffy Plan - $1,145 per semester (only for commuters or students living in senior apts)
Students receive 80 meals to be used in the dining hall or used for equivalency at the Eagles' Nest, Tuffy's Smoothie Bar and Concessions.

A few of the services available in Student Dining:

- Special diets, food allergies? The Dining Services Department works in cooperation with Student Health Services and the consulting dietitian from Dining Services to provide for specific dietary needs. If you need assistance with special meals, please stop at our booth or Accessibility Services, so we can discuss any specific accommodations. Call 419-289-5768 for information.
- What's for dinner? An online menu is available at www.ashland.edu/studentdining (follow the Menu Gazette link).
- What if I'm sick? In the event you should become ill and unable to go to the dining hall, a sick tray may be requested by calling 419-289-5762. Sick tray menus are limited to two choices: a liquid/soft diet and a bland diet.
- Nutritional Awareness Program: Dining Services is committed to responding to the nutritional interest of the student body. The mission of our nutrition program is to provide students with the information needed to make healthy eating choices in the dining hall if they desire to do so. Several nutrition services are provided to ensure we meet this mission.
 - A registered dietitian is available to speak to students on an individual or group basis to help with special diets or help students eat healthily while living on campus.

Employment:

Would you like to secure a job before arriving on campus in the fall? Sign up at our table during the information fair or contact Fred Geib at fgeib@ashland.edu.

FOOD PANTRY

Nationally, 1 in 3 college students experience food insecurity. This statistic may seem surprising to some, but the cost of tuition, fees, textbooks, housing, and other personal expenses and circumstances make food stability sometimes difficult to navigate; especially when colleges are closed for breaks and students no longer have access to dining facilities or meal plans. By opening a food pantry on campus, our hope is to help alleviate some of this burden specifically for Ashland University students.

How to Use the Food Pantry

- Students will complete a brief form on their first visit. Students must be currently enrolled in classes at Ashland University to utilize the food pantry.
- Students will present their AU ID for each visit.
- Reusable shopping bags will be provided on the first visit. Students will be expected to bring the reusable shopping bag with them on future visits.
- Students will be able to shop in the food pantry for non-perishable food and personal hygiene items.
- Students are responsible for reading all ingredient labels to make sure a personal allergen is not present before consuming food or using personal hygiene items.

Location

Ashland University Hawkins Conard Student Center
2nd Floor, Near the Office of Student & Residence Life

Hours

Open every Wednesday classes are in session from 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. or by appointment.

The Ashland University Food Pantry is maintained by the Office of Student & Residence Life. For questions, please contact us at stu-life@ashland.edu or 419-289-5325.

• Clicks

A "click" system is one of the best ways to describe and manage the multiple ways to print documents. Students are allotted 400 clicks per semester and an additional 100 clicks during finals week. These reset at the end of the semester and do not roll over.

- 1 click = 1 page of single or double-sided black and white printing
- 2 clicks = 1 page of single-sided color printing
- 4 clicks = 1 page of double-sided color printing

• How to add more clicks

Additional clicks can be purchased in the Campus Store at 5 cents per page.

What if I have problems with my personal computer?

The Tech Support Center works on student computers that are having the following issues:

- internet connectivity issues
- virus/malware cleanup
- performance optimizations
- blue screens
- Microsoft Office installation

The AU Tech Support Center does not work on hardware issues, operating system issues or formatting drives. For assistance with these issues, students can visit Armordyne Computer Solutions at 1011 East Main St., Ashland, OH 44805 (www.armordyne.com) for problems with Windows computers or ComputerMixx at 332 S. Market St., Wooster, OH 44691 (www.computermixx.com) for problems with Apple or Windows computers

Do I retain my AU email address after graduation?

Students who separate from Ashland University, whether due to graduating, transferring or otherwise, will no longer have access to their AU email address. Ashland University recommends maintaining the use of a personal email address for all non-AU related matters to avoid having to make this transition upon graduating, etc.

Student Employment with Information Technologies

Want to secure a campus job before arriving on campus? Visit our table during the Summer Orientation Information Fair to sign up or fill out an application on Handshake.

What if my password is expired?

Passwords expire every two years.

- If your password expires, you have a few ways to reset your password:
- You can navigate to pass.it.ashland.edu on any browser, click “Forgot Your Password?” and follow the prompts given. Directions for Enrollment and Account Recovery are available at ashland.edu/password.
- If you haven't enrolled in the Password Reset Tool prior to your password expiring, you can either visit IT in Patterson 100, or call the Tech Support Center and go through the steps of receiving a 15-character temporary password.

What important systems will be used on campus?

• Change your password

You will be receiving automated emails from the the TSC at “no-reply@ashland.edu” notifying you when your password is going to expire. You should be notified:

- First-round notification: A month before your password expires.
- Second-round notification(s): Once a week, every week until the final week before your password expires.
- Final-round notification(s): Every day in the last week until the password expires

• Portal

The myAU portal is an internally accessible website for student information in a variety of departments. To access the portal go to ashlanduniversity.sharepoint.com/sites/Students.

• Blackboard Learn

For web-based courses, Ashland University uses Blackboard. To access this system, visit ashland.blackboard.com.

• Email

Microsoft's Outlook hosts all Ashland University email accounts. To access your email account, visit outlook.office.com and log into Microsoft using your Ashland University credentials. Students will not be able to keep their AU email active after graduation.

• Self-Service

Self-Service is a program used to register for classes, check grades, receive financial aid letters and much more. To access Self-Service, visit: selfservice.ashland.edu.

• Connecting XBox, Playstation, and Other Devices

To connect your game consoles and other devices to the campus wifi, you first need to register them. To register these devices, visit clearpass.ashland.edu and follow the instructions. Once you register your devices, they will connect to the campus network.

• Office.com

Visit office.com and login with your ashland account to access all of our Microsoft tools which include Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Teams. You can access the web versions as well as download versions of these programs for both MAC and PC.

Recommendations from the IT Department:

- Change your password Ashland University uses an AD password system. This means that nearly every AU system will use the same username and password. To increase the security of all accounts, passwords expire every two years.
- Back Up Your Data Information Technology recommends that you back up your essential data often. This can be done using OneDrive, flash drives, external hard drives and by saving multiple copies of your work just in case.
- Lock Your Computer To enhance the security of your computer, the Information Technology department recommends that you look after your equipment even when it is running in your residence hall. For laptop users, we recommend investing in a Kensington laptop lock to physically secure the laptop to the desk. These are available in the Campus Store.
- Keep Personal Accounts Disconnected from your AU email Account Upon graduation or separation from AU, your ashland.edu email account will no longer be active.

All full-time students entering Ashland University are required to submit a completed Medical History Form and Immunization Record to the Student Health Center (SHC) prior to the start of classes. Students must visit www.medproctor.com to complete the required information.

Students experience many firsts when going away to school. Managing your own health care is commonly one of them. The primary focus of the Student Health Center is to enhance the academic success of our students by providing high quality medical care and promoting healthy lifestyles that encourage lifelong health and wellbeing.

Excessive stress may be a key element in nearly half of all illness. Stressful times are normal and manageable. Feel free to contact the Student Health Center for assistance.

Who is eligible to use the services of the Student Health Center?

- All full-time students, regardless of insurance coverage (part-time students are not eligible for Student Health Center services)
- Appointments are required

How do I make an appointment?

- In person at the Student Health Center
- On campus phone – ext. 5200 • Off-campus phone – 419-289-5200

Student Health Center Fee and Services Offered

Cost for Student Health Center services for undergraduates is covered by the Student Access fee noted on your tuition statement once per semester. Full-time graduate students are not automatically billed, but charged the fee at the time of their first visit each semester. Services included in fee:

- All Visits - Nurse, Nurse Practitioner, Physician
- Assessment, diagnosis and treatment of minor illness and injury
- Onsite lab testing in the SHC: strep, mono, pregnancy, urinalysis, etc., when indicated
- Commonly prescribed medication and over-the-counter medication, when indicated
- Flu shots, as long as supply available
- Women's Health – STI screening, Pap Smears, contraceptive management, etc.
- Continuation of allergy programs, as directed by student's allergist
 - You must receive your initial injection with your allergist.
 - Your allergist must provide the allergy serum and send documentation of your orders with specific instruction for administration.
 - You must schedule an appointment with the SHC to receive your injection.
 - You must wait a minimum of 20 minutes in the SHC after your injection. If your allergist requires longer wait times, the allergist's request will be followed.
- University-required accident insurance
- Assistance with completion and submission of insurance claims

Are additional fees charged for any services at Student Health Center?

- Immunizations - Exact fee depends on cost of vaccine at the time of injection
- Tetanus/Pertussis booster (Tdap), one injection
- Hepatitis B, series of three injections (over six months)
- TB tests

Costs are based on current pricing and are subject to change.

- Laboratory testing sent to off-campus labs, (i.e. blood tests, urine or wound cultures, etc.). The fee for these labs can be paid by cash, check, credit card, Eagle Dollars, or it can be billed to your health insurance. The exact fee is controlled by Quest Laboratories.
- Radiology - X-rays, ultrasounds, MRIs and CT scans, which are ordered by our nurse practitioner or physician, will need to be done at an outside provider such as Ohio Health or UH Samaritan Medical Center. These tests will be billed to your health insurance.
- Physical Exams - any physical including work, College of Nursing and Health Sciences, international students, etc., are $30.

Confidentiality

- All business conducted within the Student Health Center is completely confidential.

Student Health Center

- State and Federal Law prohibits the release of any health-related information without the patient's signed consent.
- Release of Information forms are available in the Student Health Center and on the Student Health Center website. These forms are valid for 90 days from the date of signature and specific to medical information approved for release by the patient.

What should I do when the Student Health Center is closed?

- When possible (non-emergency), wait until the Health Center is open to schedule an appointment.
- Visit a walk-in clinic/urgent care center. There are currently three clinics in Ashland.

• CVS Minute Clinic

Location: 418 East Main Street

Remember:

Visit www.ashlandbookstore.com for all Campus Store information and policies.

Textbook Formats

In an effort to give students more affordable choices, the Campus Store attempts to have textbooks available in several different formats: new, used, digital, rental or inclusive access. Most courses will be utilizing inclusive access, meaning course materials will be available in a digital format on Blackboard on the first day of class and will be billed to your student account. Students have the ability to opt-out of these materials but will be responsible for obtaining the textbook on their own. Rental textbooks are available for a select group of classes which changes each semester. Students will see a significant reduction in textbook pricing utilizing digital, rental or inclusive access textbooks. Ask the Campus Store for more details.

Textbook Reservations

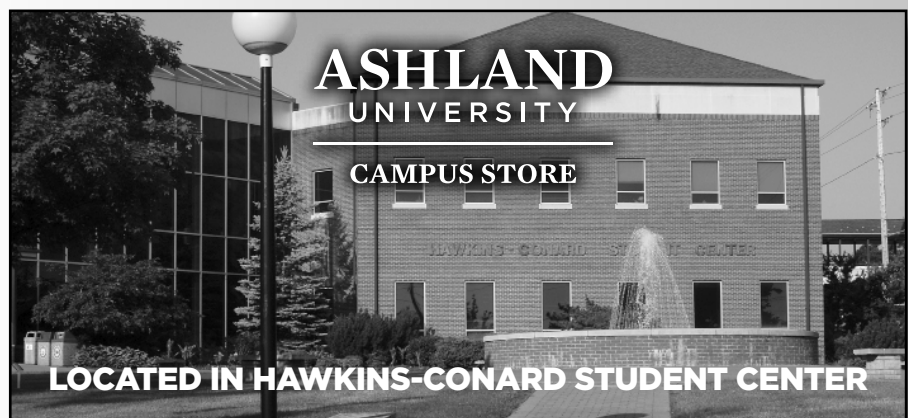

Available August 1st, reserving your textbooks online through the campus store website, www.ashlandbookstore.com, will:

- Secure your textbooks early
- Beat the rush of a crowded bookstore
- Increase the number of books eligible for you to purchase or rent, reducing your textbook expenses by up to 50%
- Have your textbooks bagged, prepaid and ready for you to pick up when you come to campus

If your book states it is inclusive access, this means your materials will be delivered digitally and you do not need to order this text.

To reserve your textbooks, you will need your class schedule and a form of prepayment such as a credit card, Eagle Dollars or financial aid. All textbooks reservations must be prepaid. If using a credit card, we will pre-authorize your payment at the time of the reservation and we will charge your credit card once the reservation is complete. Any reservations using financial aid will not be processed until at least 10 days prior to the start of the term.

Campus Store

How to Reserve Textbooks Online:

You may use the Campus Store online tool to look up and purchase required textbooks and course materials.

1. Register and log on to the Campus Store's website, www.ashlandbookstore.com.
2. Hover over "Textbooks" from the home page. When the drop down menu appears, select "Textbooks" from the list.
3. On the new page, use your schedule to input information in the "select term," "select department," and "select course and section" menus.
4. Once you have found your class, select "add course." The course will then appear on "Your Current Course List." Repeat this process until all of your courses are on that list. Once the list is complete, select "Get Course Materials."
5. The next screen will show you all of the books for your classes.
6. Some books will say "REQUIRED" and in that case you must have that textbook.
7. Others may say "OPTIONAL" and those are not required, but recommended.
8. Finally, some might say "PICK A FORMAT." In that case there are likely a few forms of the book available, such as bundle packs or student value editions.
9. Note: Not all courses require textbooks; if your class does not, it will say "This course does not require any course materials."
10. In the white boxes, you will see the prices and formats of the textbook as available from the Campus Store. To reserve one, select "add to cart." Follow this process for all of your courses.
11. Once you have made selections for each course, select "Shopping Cart" from the top of the page.
12. On this page you will be able to select the format of the textbook you would like.
13. "Used Preferred" means that you would like a used copy but will take a new textbook if there aren't any used ones available.
14. "New Preferred" means that you would like a new copy but will accept a used copy if that is the only book available.
15. Under "order summary," select whether you are picking up or shipping your order.
16. Select "payment type" and fill in payment information.
17. Check order.

Please call us at 419-289-5336 if you have any questions or difficulty using this site.

Safety Services

Safety Services

Hawkins-Conard Student Center, First Floor
419-207-5555
www.ashland.edu/safety-services

The Safety Services Department is a support service department charged with enforcing Ashland University policies and regulations and maintaining a safe and secure environment for the campus community. The department is staffed by a director, administrative assistant, dispatchers, officers and interns. Located on the first floor in the Hawkins-Conard Student Center, the Safety Services Department operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Around-the-clock service is provided by a dispatcher and at least one uniformed, unarmed officer and/or interns conducting foot and/or vehicle patrols.

Safety Service officers not only enforce university policies, they aid the local police in the enforcement of state and local statutes for incidents that may occur on campus. Officers do not have arrest authority, but are trained in emergency first aid and CPR and respond to medical, fire and other emergencies. Safety Services also enforces traffic and parking regulations; conducts crime investigations; and handles routine service calls, such as registration and distribution of parking permits; assists motorists with jump starts and lockouts; codes ID access cards; monitors access security and fire alarm systems and provides crime prevention and other safety seminars.

Services

- Escorts
- Fingerprinting (background checks)
- Registering vehicles and parking enforcement
- Motorist assistance (jumpstarts, lockouts)
- Lost and Found
- Campus patrols
- Emergency response

Student Right-to Know Information

In compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, the Ashland University Safety Services Department publishes an annual crime report disclosing security policies and crime statistics. This annual report is published each October. To view the latest report, please visit the Safety Services site on the Ashland University website. You may also request a written copy of the report by submitting a request to the Ashland University Safety Services Department at 419-207-5555 or 401 College Avenue, Ashland, OH 44805.

Parking Permits

Parking Permits:

Students who are enrolled at Ashland University are required to secure a permit for their vehicle if they plan to park on campus. Students who reside off campus and attend classes before 5 p.m. on weekdays are considered commuter students and must also register their vehicle with Safety Services. Residential students are permitted to have only one vehicle on campus at a time. Each permit is registered to a specific vehicle, and may not be moved to a different vehicle. If a student changes vehicles, they will need to register for a new permit. The charge for a new permit is $2.

The cost for a permit is $95 per year for the first permit. This fee is charged directly to the student's Ashland University account. Commuter students who wish to register an additional vehicle may do so for a fee of $2 per vehicle (up to a total of three vehicles) upon showing proof of registration.

Please refer to the safety services website for more complete information on parking regulations.

To Register for a Parking Permit, please visit:

www.ashland.edu/parking and click on the STUDENT PARKING REGISTRATION FORM.

Lots are assigned based on the following criteria: date received by the department, student preference as indicated on the form, availability and commuter/residential status. Permits ordered by July 25 will be available mid-August and can be picked up at the Safety Services window with the student's AU ID. Permits ordered after this date will likely not be ready until the beginning of the academic year.

Student Mail Boxes:

Each residential student is assigned a mailbox number that they will keep as long as they live on campus. In August, the Mail Center staff will mail a letter to the incoming first-year residential students with their mailbox assignment and instructions on how to share address information with friends and family. Incoming first-class letters and packages are scanned and an email is sent to the mailbox holder so they know to pick up the mail or package(s). Below is the format for addressing an envelope to an Ashland University student.

First and Last Name
AU Box #
Ashland University
401 College Ave
Ashland, Ohio 44805

Packages

Students may receive packages to their AU mailbox; any item too large to fit in that space will have to be picked up from the Mail Center service counter. Students will receive an email to let them know when a package arrives. These can be picked up at any time when the mail room is open by showing their EagleCard.

401 College Ave
Ashland, Ohio 44805

Amazon Lockers

Packages ordered from Amazon can be delivered directly to the Amazon Lockers in the hallway just outside the mail center. When ordering from Amazon, use the locker location in the student center as your delivery location.

When will I receive my mailbox assignment?

Mailboxes will be assigned by the Mail Center staff at the end of July. Once a mailbox is assigned, students will receive a letter with their mailbox number.

Other services offered by the Mail Center include:

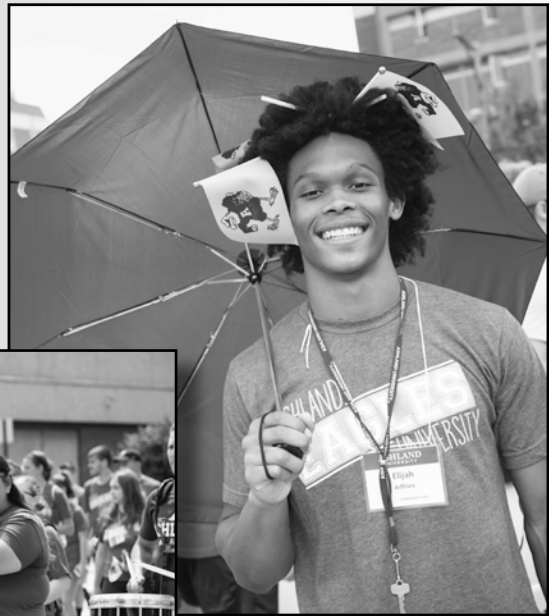

Stamps
Envelopes
Parcel Postage Shipping
First Class, Express and Standard mail processing

The Ashland University community subscribes to and strongly supports the right of each student to study and work in a quiet, peaceful and respectful atmosphere which is conducive to the pursuit and acquisition of knowledge. Article IV, Section 2 of the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of the Members of the Corporation of Ashland University (1990) states all students on entrance shall make and subscribe to the following declaration:

"I sincerely promise while I remain connected with the institution to obey all its rules and regulations and to treat my instructors, fellow students and others with respect."

Students who enroll at Ashland University are assumed to understand the obligation to conduct themselves in a manner that is compatible with the university's function as an educational institution. Each student is expected to be fully acquainted with all published policies, rules and regulations of the university and will be held responsible for compliance with them. All faculty, staff and students assist in building a community of respect. Select policies are listed as follows:

To encourage Ashland University students to organize and unify their experience into a workable and satisfying philosophy of life, we, as a community:

- Respect new ideas.
- Emphasize personal development by encouraging the examination and discussion of differing opinions.
- Support the worth and dignity of each individual.
- Promote justice and compassion on our campus and in our world.
- Enjoy Ashland University's rich cultural, ethnic and racial diversity.
- Celebrate the heritage of the institution, affirming both tradition and innovative change.
- Teach the spirit of excellence and integrity through scholarship, research and service.

Academic Integrity

Ashland University expects each student to advance the university's mission by furthering an environment that is both challenging and supportive. In such an environment, a student will neither seek nor offer improper assistance. Academic integrity implicitly implies that each student will use his/her fullest potential and will neither offer nor accept aid that is not in keeping with regularly accepted standards of academic integrity.

Alcohol

Ashland University permits the consumption or possession of beer and wine by students over the age of 21 in approved senior apartments only (and under certain conditions). All other alcohol is restricted and no alcohol is allowed in other areas. Students are held accountable for alcohol and or accessory to alcohol violations if they are in a room on campus and alcohol is in that room.

Commuter Policy

Students are required to live on campus unless they qualify for commuter status. Commuter status exceptions can be found in the Student Handbook.

Reporting

Students, family and campus community members can report any conduct concerns through our Incident Report system: www.ashland.edu/student-conduct. Reports can also be made to the Student Conduct Office, Safety Services and Resident Assistants. Reports can also be made through our Campus Shield app.

The Office of Christian Ministry (OCM) exists to provide opportunities for AU students to discover their own path to spiritual growth during their college years. Students who avail themselves of religious life at AU find themselves part of an amazing and life-affirming community of love and support where life-long friendships are formed and new dimensions of faith are discovered and lived out. Each ministry within OCM is unique and new faces are always welcome!

The Well

The Well is a community of people striving to model their lives after Jesus Christ and to develop a personal relationship with Him. No matter where you are on your journey, you're welcome with us. We gather to encounter the presence of the Lord through His Word and worship, experience the transformative power of the Holy Spirit individually and communally and respond to God for who He is and all He has done by obediently worshiping with our whole being. Join us for worship on Thursday nights at 8 p.m. in Lower Chapel and check out our Bible studies, retreats, service projects and social gatherings! For more information, see www.wellashland.com or stop by the Office of Christian Ministry in Lower Chapel.

Catholic Campus Ministry - Newman Community

Catholic Campus Ministry at AU seeks to provide a Catholic university experience for students, faculty and staff on campus. Through the sacraments, social gatherings and service to others, the Newman Community fosters a culture of faith in which people might encounter Jesus Christ and accompany one another along the journey of life. Helping each other discover and develop into the persons God created us to be, we are, as Pope Francis stated, "missionary disciples accompanying missionary disciples!" Join us in the Lower Chapel for Mass on Sunday afternoons/evenings and Newman Nights on Wednesday evenings and for Bible studies and prayer groups and social and service opportunities throughout the semester. Find more at www.ashlandcatholic.org.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA)

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an interdenominational, coeducational group of university athletes and interested students whose purpose is to present to athletes and coaches, as well as to all they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. FCA provides its members with the opportunity to be involved in retreats, conferences, Bible study and evangelism training. FCA meets weekly on Tuesday nights at 9 p.m. in Lower Chapel.

CCO International Student Ministry

The Coalition for Christian Outreach (CCO) is AU's international student ministry and attracts participation from both international and domestic students interested in worship, study and fellowship together. Weekly free lunches are held on Tuesdays at 11:45 a.m. in Lower Chapel. Members also gather for Bible study, tea and are invited to worship together at the Chinese Service at First Presbyterian in downtown Ashland.

Isaiah Project

The Isaiah Project (named for the Prophet Isaiah who enthusiastically answered God's call to serve) is the umbrella under which students, faculty and staff are invited to participate in short-term missions throughout the year. From "Mystery Mission Trips" to unknown destinations to Alaska to the Caribbean to Africa and South America, Isaiah Project trips invite participants out of their comfort zones and into new relationships in service to others.

Religious Clubs & Small Groups

Each year AU offers a number of student-led religious clubs, small groups, Bible studies and other experiences that are open to the entire student body. Recent clubs have included Delight Women's Ministry, Thomistic Institute, Ratio Christi and Young Life. Check www.ashland.edu/engage for a full list of current offerings.

Christian Ministries

Students are encouraged to visit the churches of Ashland and the surrounding community to find a church home that will provide multi-generational opportunities for worship, study, service and fellowship. Almost every Christian denomination can be found in Ashland or within a short drive. Stop by the Office of Christian Ministry for recommendations based on your personal faith experiences.

AU is especially proud of its Brethren heritage and has a strong connection with the Brethren congregations of Ashland.

Five Stones Community Church

Five Stones is a diverse group of Christ-followers, made up of local residents and college students who meet on the campus of Ashland University. We want to help you identify, embrace and pursue your personal mission. We gather for worship every Sunday in the upper level of the Jack and Deb Miller Chapel at 10:30 a.m. Along with Sunday morning worship, small groups meet for greater spiritual and personal development throughout the week. For more information, visit the website at www.5stones.org or contact Bill Ludwig at bill@5stones.org.

Park Street Brethren Church

PSBC is a multi-generational community located just down College Avenue from Ashland at 619 Park Street. Our mission is to empower authentic disciples who live life on a mission for God. We strive to renew Ashland and the world around us through communal witness, discipleship and service. Worship is held every Sunday morning at 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. in our newly renovated Worship Center. In addition to Sunday morning worship, we seek to grow deeper through small groups and mentor relationships. For more information on how to connect, visit the website at www.parkstreetbrethren.org or contact Lanie Roberts at lanie@parkstreetbrethren.org

Fraternity & Sorority Life

Enhance Your Ashland University Experience with Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL)

College fraternities and sororities offer more than social events; they're about growth and embodying the core values of Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Friendship. At Ashland University, our FSL community offers unique opportunities for personal and professional development.

Our campus hosts four fraternities (opportunities for Alpha Phi Alpha may be available) and four sororities, each fostering a supportive environment where members thrive academically and socially. We excel in scholarship, with our community members consistently achieving higher GPAs than the university average.

Service is central to our mission, with FSL members contributing thousands of hours to community service annually. Leadership is also encouraged, with over 236 leadership positions available within our community.

Friendship is fundamental, with over 200 FSL events annually fostering bonds among members and the wider community. When you join us, you represent our four pillars of Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Friendship while embracing your individuality and wearing your letters proudly. We invite you to join us in shaping a community where every member thrives.

Quick Facts

Mascot	Eagle
Varsity Sports	24
Colors	Purple & Gold
Affiliation	NCAA Division II
Conference	Great Midwest Athletic Conference (Great Midwest)

What is NCAA Division II?

In addition to the purposes and fundamental policy of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, as set forth in Constitution 1, members of Division II believe that a well-conducted intercollegiate athletics program, based on sound educational principles and practices, is a proper part of the educational mission of a university or college and that the educational wellbeing and academic success of the participating student-athlete is of primary concern. There are approximately 300 institutions competing on the NCAA Division II level.

What is the Great Midwest Athletic Conference?

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference, established in 2011, consists of 13 private, nonprofit member institutions and sponsors 26 conference championship sport offerings.

Current members of the Great Midwest include Ashland University, Cedarville University, University of Findlay, Hillsdale College, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Lake Erie College, Malone University, Northwood University, Ohio Dominican University, Thomas More University, Tiffin University, Ursuline College and Walsh University.

Where do the Eagles play?

Ashland University's facilities are among the best in NCAA Division II. In recent years, Ashland has added softball's new Deb Miller Field at the Archer Ballpark Complex and the multi-purpose Niss Athletic Center, one of the top indoor facilities in the country, as well as the renovated Tomassi Baseball Stadium and Donges Field at the Archer Ballpark Complex. For more on Ashland's athletic venues, go to <https://goashlandeagles.com/facilities>.

What do incoming student-athletes need to do to be eligible for competition?

All incoming student-athletes must complete their eligibility certification at https://web3.ncaa.org/ECWR2/NCAA_EMS/NCAA.jsp. For more information, contact Compliance Officer Tim Johnson at 419-289-5297 or tjohns19@ashland.edu.

What is Ashland's athletics ticket information?

Ashland has seven ticketed sports – football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, wrestling, indoor track/field and STUNT. All other sporting events are free. Gates open one hour prior to all ticketed events; except football (90 minutes). Ticket prices are as follows:

- Basketball: $16 reserved, $11 adult, $6 students and seniors
- Football: $15 reserved, $10 adult, $5 students and seniors
- Volleyball: $12 reserved, $10 adult, $5 students and seniors
- Wrestling: $11 adult, $6 students and seniors
- STUNT: $10 adult, $5 students and seniors

Pre-paid tickets can be purchased through the Campus Store at 419-289-5336. For group ticketing, call 419-289-5442. For will call and general ticketing information, call 419-289-5441. Prices are subject to change.

An athlete may receive up to four complimentary admissions per HOME contest. Complimentary admission is provided by a pass list for family members and relatives and only for the sport(s) in which he/she participates. A list is submitted by the head coach to Chris Kohuth, Ticket Manager, at ckohuth@ashland.edu, or by phone at 419-289-5449, by noon on the Friday before game day for football, and one hour before game time for all other sports.

Residence Life Mission Statement

In accordance with Ashland University's mission, Residence Life is committed to creating a welcoming community that promotes learning, service, citizenship, diversity and integrity. Through continuous improvements, we strive to create a safe living environment that is conducive to the development of all students.

Residence Life Diversity Statement

Residence Life advocates to create a welcoming environment that fosters dignity, care and respect. At Ashland University we value, support and educate our residents across differences while seeking unity.

Room Assignments

Students must complete a housing application at www.housing.ashland.edu. Housing assignments and roommate information will be emailed to your ashland.edu email account by mid- to late July.

First-year students are generally placed with a roommate based on similar lifestyles such as cleanliness and sleep habits. Students who would like to search for a possible roommate may do so through the Roomiez feature at www.housing.ashland.edu. Students may choose to create a profile on Roomiez to find other students with similar lifestyle preferences and interests. Instructional documents are linked on our web page, ashland.edu/housing. There are also instructions on how to request a specific roommate. Roommate requests must be mutual to be granted. Students living in Honors or on Ashbrook floors may only request a roommate within their same program.

Move-In

- New residential students will move in on Friday, August 23rd.
- Residence Life will send out specific information regarding move-in schedules, where to pick up your keys, and what to bring. Be sure to check your AU email for that information!
- Students must submit an early arrival application at www.housing.ashland.edu if they plan to arrive before August 23, 2024. It is $25 per day to arrive to campus before the designated move in date; if your early arrival application is not filled out, an additional charge of $50 will be applied to the student's account.
- See the Move-In Parking Lot Map in the front cover of this guidebook for move-in instructions.
- Students are encouraged to verify that their student accounts are cleared with the Business Office. This means that all fees and charges must be paid in full or arrangements made before any student can reside in university facilities.

Your New Room

Information on all residence halls can be found at ashland.edu/campus-studenthousing under the halls tab. You will be able to take virtual tours, see pictures and dimensions of standard rooms. Be sure to check out our 2024-2025 First Year Guide for information about rooms, pricing, roommates and what to bring!

Residence Hall Information

Furnishings - There is a bed, desk, chair, chest of drawers and closet space for each student. Drapes or blinds are also furnished in each room. All university furniture must remain in the rooms.

Laundry - Laundry facilities are located in each residence hall. A standard service fee is applied to every student's bill that covers the use of the machines; no quarters needed.

Security - Ashland has a full-time Safety Services Department located on campus that is accessible to all students anytime. All residence halls have swipe access; each student is required to use their student ID to gain access to their residence hall. Propping outside doors is a violation of university policy. All community members should see that residence hall entrances are properly secured behind them once they enter residential buildings. Students should keep their rooms locked at all times. Residents are encouraged to purchase safes for valuable items and any medications they may have, as well as purchase renter's insurance.

Mailing Address - Please use the mailing address supplied by the Mail Center. Do not use your residence hall and room number as your mailing address. For more information about the Mail Center, see page 45.

Residence Life In-Hall Staff

Resident Assistants - Resident Assistants (RA) are undergraduate peers trained in community development and crisis management. Their various duties focus on the development of a secure floor and hall community. Each RA is responsible for organizing social and educational floor events, being trained in conflict resolution activities, responding to crisis, serving as a referral source and assisting with the adjustment issues that face new and returning students.

Residence Life Coordinators (RLCs) - Professional staff who supervise RAs and oversee the day-to-day operations of residence hall facilities. They serve as Student Conduct hearing officers for residence hall disciplinary incidents. They assist with crisis situations and participate in an on-call duty schedule with other RLCs.

Housing Requirements

All full-time undergraduate students (registered for 12 or more hours per semester) are required to live on campus. Students who started their undergraduate classes at Ashland University in Fall 2023, and following semesters, will have a 3 year live-on requirement. Students will be required to live on campus for a total of 6 Fall and Spring semesters or have completed 90 credit hours at an accredited college/university, as verified by Ashland University Registrar. Students who wish to live off campus will need to apply for off campus status through Residence Life. Undergraduate students who started at Ashland University prior to Fall 2023 must live on campus for all 4 years unless the student meets one of the housing exemption policies outlined in the Student Handbook.

Commuter Services Provided

- COMMUTER LOCKERS Register for a commuter locker for FREE in the Office of Student & Residence Life located on the second floor of the Hawkins-Conard Student Center, 230. Commuter lockers are located on the second floor of the Student Center. You will need to provide your own lock.
- ASHLAND COMMUTER EAGLES (ACE) This is a commuter student organization that gives members an opportunity to gain leadership skills and help plan commuter events and programs. Membership is open to all commuter students. For more information, visit our Engage page at www.ashland.edu/engage.

Commuter Parking

Students who reside off campus and attend classes before 5 p.m. weekdays are considered commuter students and must register their vehicle with the Safety Services Department. Commuter students whose classes do not begin before 5 p.m. weekdays are not required to purchase a permit, but must adhere to the Ashland University parking policies for students. Please refer to the parking policies section for additional details. You may also register your vehicle electronically through the www.ashland.edu/safety-services website.

Student Center and Commuter Lounge

The commuter lounge is located on the second floor of the Student Center near the entrance to the footbridge. The lounge is a great place to hang out and relax between classes, eat lunch, meet other commuter students and find out what is happening around campus. Commuter lounge amenities include:

- Microwave
- Sink and counter for food prep
- Tables and chairs
- Comfortable couches and chairs
- Computer stations with internet access
- TV
- Close proximity to vending machines
- Close proximity to commuter lockers and restrooms

The Center for CommUNITY & Belonging

The Office of Community & Belonging supports all students with a focus toward underrepresented students and student organizations. We are committed to promoting a truly inclusive living, learning and working environment that affirms the inherent dignity, worth and value of each person. We work to engage and educate students on topics of diversity through the lens of Christianity, which emphasizes civility and respect for the value of all. We celebrate AU's rich diversity and prepare our students to serve and lead in a global society.

Pathways Program

Open to all students with a focus on students who identify BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color), multicultural or multiracial, Pathways focuses on equipping students to excel at Ashland University and beyond. Starting with a four-day pre-orientation program and continuing through the first year, students have the opportunity to build community, learn and enhance college success skills, gain leadership experience, connect with campus resources and interact with faculty, students and staff.

Resilience Scholarship

The Resilience Scholarship is a $2,000 renewable award offered to incoming students through the Center for CommUNITY & Belonging. This scholarship supports students who show promise to enhance the diverse learning perspectives on campus and among their peers. Applicants will be considered based upon their ability to promote community, equity, and well-being on the Ashland University campus.

Common Ground Lounge

The Common Ground, located on the second floor of the Hawkins-Conard Student Center, is an inclusive place where members of the university community, representing a wide variety of backgrounds, participate in programs and activities.
