CURRICULUM FOCUS

Five in a Row

Volumes 1-8 form the core of FIAR's elementary and middle school curriculum, providing inspired learning through great books at every level. Each unit is based on a children's picture book (Volumes 1-5) or a chapter book (Volumes 5-8), drawing high-interest, age-appropriate lessons that cover Social Studies, Language Arts, Art, Applied Math and Science. In Volumes 1-3, your student will spend one week of study per unit; in Volumes 4-5, picture book studies will take two weeks.

Chapter book studies in Volumes 5-8 will vary in length depending on your student's needs. One of the hallmarks of the Five in a Row curriculum is its flexibility, so the amount of time spent per unit, and per volume, may vary from family to family. These volumes cover Social Studies, Science, Language Arts, Fine Arts and Life Skills.

Interest-based, discussion-based and play-based learning techniques are utilized throughout FIAR to capture your student's attention and increase retention of the material. This makes it ideal for all learning styles!

LEWIS & CLARK UNIT STUDIES*

Mondays,
10-11:30 a.m.
July 8 - Aug. 5

2nd-6th grade
Literature, Art and Science

Over these five weeks, students will read and discuss "Lewis and Clark: The Missing Peace Medals," written by local author, Holly VanDyne, and illustrated by Audrey VanDyne. This chapter book follows stowaway, Alexander Payne, as he makes discoveries, learns about the wilds of America, and maybe even saves the day!

Just like Alexander, students will begin a nature journal, study native plants and animals and improve their drawing and painting skills.

Registered students will be provided an eagle backpack along with a copy of "The Missing Peace Medals," a blank nature journal and a travel set of colored pencils.

Limited to 10 students

*This workshop requires a refundable $5 registration fee due at the time of registration.

BACK TO SCHOOL BASH

Aug. 12

10 a.m. - noon

Kick off the school year with a little fun. We will be in the AU Rec Center playing basketball, soccer, ping-pong and more!

Please remember that students 15 years and younger must have an adult present.

Registration is required for this event.

FALL KICK OFF

Aug. 12

10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Stop in and get ready for the upcoming year.

While you are here, pick up a fall newsletter and fill out the yearly registration form. Grab a cup of coffee or tea and browse our curriculum library. Our knowledgeable staff will be on hand to answer all your questions.

PERCH DISSECTION*

June 11

1-2:30 p.m.

or

July 10

10-11:30 a.m.

During this workshop, students will work in groups of 2 to dissect a perch. They will learn to how identify and label basic organs and systems and how to document their findings in a notebook.

All needed supplies will be provided. Please keep in mind the nature of this workshop, and dress students in clothing that is easily cleaned.

Each session is limited to 8 students

*This workshop requires a refundable $5 registration fee due at the time of registration.

PLANNING FOR FALL

Summer has just begun, and yet the new school year will be here before we know it. HCLC is now planning all the wonderful workshops and events that will take place between September and January. What will those things be? That's where you come in. We have many ideas, but we need your input. Head on over to our Facebook Page and take our survey.

TELLING AMERICA'S STORY

THREE WORKSHOPS, THREE PROFESSORS, THREE DOCUMENTS, ONE STORY.

June 18, 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

"The Declaration of Independence" ***

Described by Thomas Jefferson as "an expression of the American mind," "The Declaration of Independence" is a unique document that lays out the fundamental ideas that shape our country. In this workshop, Dr. Cara Rogers-Stevens will lead a discussion of these key principles and help students grasp the revolutionary ideas the document contains.

July 9, 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

"The Gettysburg Address" ***

Why does Lincoln refer to the equality of all men as a "proposition" rather than the "self-evident truth" of the Declaration of Independence? In this workshop, Dr. Jason Stevens will help students grapple with this and other questions about Lincoln's famous speech.

July 25, 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

"I Have a Dream" Speech ***

This workshop will discuss MLK Jr's "I Have a Dream" Speech and the understanding of America that it expresses. Dr. Greg McBrayer will help students find answers to questions like "Why does MLK refer to the Declaration of Independence as a "promissory note" to all Americans?" and "What is MLK's vision of America?"

WINGS OF GLORY

July 19, 1 - 3 p.m. Wings of Glory is a table-top game that allows players to recreate aerial combat during World War I, using cards and miniatures to represent the airplanes and their maneuvers. Players will control one or more airplanes, taking to the skies to engage their opponents in aerial duels, or trying to accomplish a specific mission, such as recon, escort, or bombing. AU History professor, Dr. John Moser, will lead players as they make history come alive. Limited to 15 students

HOMESCHOOLING HOW-TOS

July 11, 9 a.m.

Are you considering homeschool? Don't know where to start? Getting started doesn't need to be overwhelming.

Join us for this workshop where we will discuss topics ranging from Ohio law requirements to district policies and procedures. We will also cover the details of College Credit Plus, Vocational Education and the benefits of co-ops.

CURRICULUM LIBRARY SHOWCASE

June 17, July 12
10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Drop in and check out our curriculum library. While you are here register for a library card, and pick up a fall newsletter. We'll be happy to answer any questions you have.

COULD IT BE DYSLEXIA?

Aug. 8, 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Do you have a child that is struggling with reading or remember math facts? Have you suspected dyslexia? Join us for this workshop where you will learn common dyslexia myths, ways to recognize dyslexia, and how to help your student learn.

WORKSHOPS

HOMESCHOOLING 101

Aug. 13, 6- 8 p.m.

In this workshop you will learn to set long and short term homeschooling goals, how to set educational priorities and how to craft a personalized curriculum map tailored to your child's needs. We will also explore the five basic types of homeschooling and guide you through selecting a curriculum that aligns with your goals and preferences. Whether you are a seasoned homeschooler or just starting out, this workshop will equip you with the tools to create a fulfilling educational experience for your family.

BUILDING A UNIT STUDY

Aug. 15, 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Do you love the idea of unit studies, but not know where to start? In this workshop we will brainstorm unit study themes, learn how to build a full unit from a "spine" and discover where to find those activities that will make your unit study something your kids will be talking about for years to come.

After registering for this course you will receive a "getting to know you" survey. Please fill it out and return it. We will be using the answers to tailor the workshop to the people attending.
